The Common Sense Initiative is established in R.C. 107.61 to eliminate excessive and duplicative rules and regulations that stand in the way of job creation. Under the Common Sense Initiative, agencies must balance the critical objectives of regulations that have an adverse impact on business with the costs of compliance by the regulated parties. Agencies should promote transparency, responsiveness, predictability, and flexibility while developing regulations that are fair and easy to follow. Agencies should prioritize compliance over punishment, and to that end, should utilize plain language in the development of regulations.

Reason for Submission

1. R.C. 106.03 and 106.031 require agencies, when reviewing a rule, to determine whether the rule has an adverse impact on businesses as defined by R.C. 107.52. If the agency determines that it does, it must complete a business impact analysis and submit the rule for CSI review.

The rule(s):

- a. Requires a license, permit, or any other prior authorization to engage in or operate a line of business.

The scope of the impacted business community includes the three-commercial permit holders that conduct horse racing in Ohio and the licensees associated with horse racing.

b. Identify the nature of all adverse impact (e.g., fees, fines, employer time for compliance,); and 3769-7-12 The jockey may not be able to ride a horse in a race. The jockey could be fined or suspended for not complying with this rule.

c. Quantify the expected adverse impact from the regulation.

The adverse impact can be quantified in terms of dollars, hours to comply, or other factors; and may be estimated for the entire regulated population or for a “representative business.” Please include the source for your information/estimated impact.

17. Why did the Agency determine that the regulatory intent justifies the adverse impact to the regulated business community?

3769-7-12 Jockeys must be physically fit and good vision to ride a horse in a race. If a jockey does not have good vision and is not physically fit, he could cause an accident and hurt himself, other jockeys and the horses.

Regulatory Flexibility

18. Does the regulation provide any exemptions or alternative means of compliance for small businesses? Please explain.

No, this regulation applies to only three commercial race track permit holders that conduct thoroughbred horse racing; therefore, an exemption for small businesses is not applicable.
