Amadevil kept her win streak intact by capturing the $75,000 Scarlet & Grey Handicap, a six-furlong sprint for Ohio-registered fillies and mares, 3-year-olds and up, on a mild and breezy afternoon, Oct. 7, at Jack Thistledown.

The 3-year-old Amadevil, who left the gate at 1-9 odds, is a daughter by Dominus, out of the Pulpit mare Preachette, and is trained and co-owned by David Wolochuk for Blue Snow Racing.

Now five-for-five lifetime, Amadevil grabbed the lead at the start and quickly drew off from her rivals, scoring under the wire almost seven lengths in front of second place finisher, 9-2 Circus

Rings (Hector Berrios). Miss Mischievous, a 15-1 longshot, was ridden to third by Malcom Franklin, while 18- Here Comes Jigs, was fourth with Fernando Becerra in the saddle.

Amadevil had regular rider Chelsey Keiser in the irons and was clocked in 1:09.64 for her impressive effort. Bred by Imagine, she now has $150,900 in her career coffers. This bay filly, who sports a bright gold bridle and thick black shadow roll, broke her maiden at Thistledown on June 21, before rattling off two Thistledown allowance contests before capturing the $75,000 Mackey Angenora Stakes on Sept. 2 at Thistledown.

Out For Fun, a leggy, dark bay by daughter by City Weekend-Preseli's Pulpit, by Pulpit, captured the $75,000 Emerald Necklace Stakes against six Ohio-accredited 2-year-old fillies on this same program.

Ridden by Christian Pilares in this six-furlong sprint, Out For Fun was the 6-5 favorite, and was timed in 1:13.62 for her gate to wire effort. Trained by Robert Gorham and owned by Marion Gorham, Out for Fun finished three-quarters of a length in front of 45-1 longshot Ashley's Cupcake (Gulliermo Rodriquez), with 12-1 Bossy Lady (Luis Rivera) third and 20-1 Runlikejackieo (Joan Toledo) fourth.

Bred by Hillburn Racing Stable, Out For Fun upped her career earnings to $70,515, and now has two wins and a second-place finish in four lifetime starts.
