For immediate Release: November 10, 2018

by Kimberly Rinker, For the Ohio Thoroughbred Race Fund

Heavenhasmynikki took the $75,000 First Lady Stakes with aplomb on a chilly Saturday afternoon, Nov. 10, at Mahoning Valley Race Course, stopping the timer over the Austintown dirt in a modest 1:11.51 with Luis Colon in the saddle.

The winner was content to chase the 15-1 leader Dancin' Rosie (Luis Rivera) to just past the half before taking command of the race, eventually drawing off to win by a comfortable five lengths in the six-furlong sprint for 3-year-old Ohio-registered fillies and mares.

Jockey John McKee steered 9-5 Magna Rose to a second-place finish, with 15- Emmy's Candy grabbing third-place honors for rider Christian Pilares, and Dancin' Rosie holding on for fourth.

Bred by Ohio's Langsem Farm and owned by Looch Racing Stable, Heavenhasmynikki notched her fifth win of the season in ten starts and her second stakes triumph of 2018. She is by Majestic Warrior, out of the prolific Forest Wildcat mare Floral Park. Heavenhasmynikki now has $204,580 in her career coffers and hails from trainer Gary Johnson's stable.
