Edge of Night prevails in Ohio Debutante Handicap

November 7, 2020

by Kimberly Rinker, Ohio Thoroughbred Race Fund

Edge of Night, a 12-1 longshot, got the upper hand in the $75,000 Ohio Debutante Handicap, an Ohio Thoroughbred Race Fund (OTRF) stake, on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 7 at Mahoning Valley Race Course.

Edge of Night

Ridden by Christians Pilares for trainer Robert Gorham and Mast Thoroughbreds, the 3-year-old bay daughter by Added Edge-Cargo Jet, by Discreet Cat, covered the one mile dirt contest in a modest 1:41.39, notching her first victory of the 2020 season. Bred by Steve DeMaiolo, Edge of Night now has $77,000 in seasonal earnings and $220,250 in her career coffers.

Mobil Lady, the 9-1 choice, was second for rider Ricardo Feliciano, while the hard-trying 5-1 Grizabella got up for third with Luis Rivera aboard.

Birdacious (5-1) picked up fourth-place honors for Sonny Leon, with 34-1 Ting Tang fifth for Omar Hernandez and the 2-5 favorite Leona's Reward, a sad sixth and last for jockey Erik Barbaran.
