by Kimberly Rinker, Ohio Thoroughbred Race Fund

Send Me On utilized a keen effort to prevail by more than three lengths in Saturday's (June 29) $75,000 Daniel Stearns Cleveland Gold Cup at JACK Thistledown.

The son of Hold Me Back—Atlasta Crypto, by Cryptoclearance was clocked in 1:41.06 in the one and 1/8th mile test over the Cleveland dirt in the 51st running of the Stearns.

Diamond Dust (Scott Speith), the 5-1 favorite was second, with 9-2 Manga Man (Luiz Gonzalez) third and 10-1 Pat's Karma (Luis Rivera) notching fourth-place honors. Send Me On was sent off at 6-1 odds.

Trainer Robert Gorham conditions Send Me On for owner Marion Gorham. The bay gelding now has $136,947 in his bankroll from four wins, one second and a third in nine lifetime starts.

Send Me On—who was bred Gail Kromer and Eric Heyman—was second in the Green Carpet Stakes earlier this season.
