Spinning Top upsets in $75,000 Tomboy Stakes

For immediate Release: May 13, 2017

by Kimberly Rinker, For the Ohio Thoroughbred Race Fund

Thirty-five to one longshot Spinning Top and jockey Carlos Villasana came from dead last to capture the $75,000 Tomboy Stakes by half a length over 5/2 Missap (Dean Sarvis) on Sunday afternoon, May 13 at Belterra Park.

The Tomboy featured a field of seven, 3-year-old fillies battling over Belterra's turf course at one and one-sixteenth miles.

Trained by Troy Green for Imagine Racing, the dark brown Data Link filly was making just her fourth career start, returning $77.60 on a two-dollar win ticket.

It was the first time the homebred lass had hit the board or in her brief career.

Mild, 12-1 longshot Keep The Ring (Victor Lebron) nabbed third, while another longshot, 17-1 choice Ucantkeepup, was fourth for rider Deshawn Parker.

Spinning Top's bankroll now stands at $47,801. She was a $30,000 purchase at the 2016 Keeneland January Sale.
